43rd ANNUAL PRINCE LOT HULA FESTIVAL

A Presentation of Moanalua Gardens Foundation
ALOHA

Welcome to our Virtual Festival.
We hope you enjoy the presentation.

In these trying times
Moanalua Gardens Foundation is proud to bring to you in the safety of your homes
a special program of Hula with Aloha from the historic Queen Emma Summer Palace.

Although we could not gather in person this year,
due to the Pandemic,
we wanted to keep our annual tradition alive
through this virtual presentation of the finest of non-competitive hula honoring Prince Lot Kapuāiwa.

All of us at Moanalua Gardens Foundation invite you to enjoy this inspiring program of Hula with messages of Hope and Aloha.

E NĀNĀ MAI

HĀLAU HULA
Kewelina Mai Nei is a greeting by Kāne to the people who dwelled in Waipi'o Valley. Love & Blessings to you All.

Kākuhihewa honors the great chief of O'ahu, the 15th Ali'i Aimoku and great grandson of high chiefess Kūkaniloko.

MEDLEY
Holoholo Ka'a
Ta Ha Ua La
Lovely Hula Hands
Mī Nei
Alu Like

A medley of hula remembered in every hula dancers’ repertoire. Starting with a classic car ride then excitement with ‘uli‘uli, and pū‘ili accompaniment in Ta Ha Ua La.

The beautiful Lovely Hula Hands is followed by the enchanting Mī Nei. Their Finale is Alu Like - Joining together as one.

MUSIC  Brian Mersberg & Rodney Bejer

KAHALA, KONA, O'AHU
The snow goddess Poli’ahu reveals her beauty in the mist that falls upon the lovely māmane blossoms. The fragrance carried by the winds caress the slopes and the colorful Koko’ula rainbow appears, and yet . . . fear exists within its serenity.
This Mele was written by Kumu Hula Mililani Allen when she visited Moloka'i with John Ka'imikaua in 1983.

She describes her experience upon visiting Ka'ana, the birthplace of the Hula. Moloka'i Nui A Hina

WAI'ÄNAE, O'AHU
Two mele pana that celebrate the beauty and love for the island of Maui. Hawaiians love their home island.

They use the ipu heke ‘ole in their second mele.

MELE
Pālolo I Ka Uhiwai

ʻulʻulī

Pālolo is the home of this Hālau as they celebrate their ʻāina within all their mele.

The ʻŌlapa will use the ʻulʻulī, a gourd rattle, to accompany their dance. Implements are often used to embellish the performance and to accentuate the poetry.

Uhiwai - the misty fog caressing the mountain valleys of Oʻahu.

MALIA KAÚ
HULA AWARD

Kumu Leimomi established her Hālau in 1984 perpetuating the legacy of her Hānai Mama, kumu Victoria Keali‘ika‘apunihonua I‘I Rodrigues. Leimomi feels so blessed to have also been nurtured by Helen Waia‘u, Sam Kamuela Naeole, Joseph Kahua‘elelio, and John Pi‘ilani Watkins. Leimomi received her 'Ūniki from kumu hula Kekau‘ilani Kalama.

Leimomi instills in her haumana the importance of respecting and cherishing the Art of Hula and all the cultural traditions of our kūpuna. Through us they live.

PART TWO

I ULU NŌ KA LĀLĀ I KE KUMU
Youth Blossoms From A Strong Foundation
A mele composed by Puakea Nogelmeier that speaks about … The power that each of us hold in tending to the world around us. We must cherish and keep watch over the most precious things in life.
HĀLAU HULA
KA NO'EAU

Michael Pili Pang
KUMU HULA

MELE

Wahine Hololio
Nani Wale A Ka Mahina

Two classic hula songs that are a tribute to Queen Emma and inspired by the remarkable Kahauanu Lake Trio of the 60s.

Kina'u was Queen Emma's favorite horse easily imagined with her riding whip.

MELE
I Aloha Ia Kīlauea
Oli Kamehameha
Hana Waimea

'ulī 'ulī

A mele in honor of Prince Lot Kapuāiwa, Kamehameha V, about his inter-island steam ship - Kīlauea.

As Hālau Alaka'i, Delys Hulalimaikalanimai Recca chants the mo'okūauhau of Kamehameha 'Ekahi.

Hana Waimea is a classic mele in honor of Kāmehameha and his famous Kīpu'u pu'u warriors.

MAUNALUA, KONA, O'AHU
Their first mele 'Ōhi'a Kū O Maunaloa is dedicated to La'ilai - the first 'Olohe Pi'o Umoumou.

Their second mele honors the western mountain range of Molokai known as Maunaloa. Many springs, streams, Ohi'a forests and sacred landmarks are described as the poetry acknowledges the La'ilai family, their home, and the birthplace of Hula.

Kewalo Uka

Composed by Jonah Kahanuola Solatorio celebrating his youth in the Hawaiian Homestead just below Papakōlea, and the newer Kalāwahine on the hill and 'Auwaiolimu - the remnant mossy ditch stream alongside Puowaina and Kewalo Uka.

Many famous musicians, singers, dancers and leimakers hail from this hilly community.
